
OVERSEAS MIGRATION FROM EAST-CENTRAL AND SOUTHEASTERN EUROPE 1880—1940

Edited by
JULIANNA PUSKÁS

AKADÉMIAI KIADÓ · BUDAPEST 1990

CONTENTS

Preface	7
Jiří Kořalka (Prague) Some Remarks on the Future Model of Czech Emigration (1848—1914)	9
Dirk Hoerder (Bremen) Migration and the International Labor Markets in the Atlantic Economies	21
Julianna Puskás (Budapest) Some Results of My Research on the Transatlantic Emigration from Hungary on the Basis of Macro- and Micro-Analysis	43
František Bielik (Bratislava) Slovak Emigration in the Years 1880—1939 and Problems Involved in Its Study	59
Ladislav Tajták (Prešov) Slovak Emigration: Its Causes and Consequences	74
József Gellén (Debrecen) A Systems Approach to Emigration from Hungary before 1914	89
Monika Glettler (Munich) The Hungarian Government Position on Slovak Emigration, 1885—1914	107
Andrzej Brożek (Cracow) Sources and Historiography of Emigration from Poland before 1939	119
Ralph Melville (Mainz) Permanent Emigration and Temporary Transnational Migration: Jewish, Polish and Russian Emigration from Tsarist Russia, 1861—1914	133
Ivan Čizmić (Zagreb) Emigration from Croatia, 1880—1914	143
Vesna Mikačić (Zagreb) Overseas Migration of the Yugoslav Population in the Period between the Two World Wars	168
Matjaž Klemenčič (Maribor) Sources of the Lands of Emigration as a Source for Studying Migration History: The Case of the Slovenes	191
Ján Sirácky (Bratislava) On the Problems of Lowland Slovak Emigration in the Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries	205

Mihály Hoppál (Budapest)
Ethnic Identity and Symbolic Ethnicity among Hungarian-Americans in Northern Indiana	221
Péter Niedermüller (Budapest)
An Anthropological Approach to the Study of Immigration	227
Summary of the Discussion	236