

Political Posters in Ethiopia and Mozambique

Visual Imagery in a Revolutionary Context

by

BERIT SAHLSTRÖM

Uppsala 1990

Almqvist & Wiksell International

Stockholm, Sweden

Contents

CHAPTER I. INTRODUCTION 1

Prologue 1

Clarifications 2

Politics, culture and mass culture in Mozambique: A short outline 5

Modern urban development 6 Resistance and nationalism 8 National and cultural identity 9 The press 10

Politics, culture and mass culture in Ethiopia: A short outline 10

The Emperor's Ethiopia 11 Ethiopian national identity 12 The Dergue comes to power 13 Ethiopian cultural context and the role of visual images 13

Foreign press in Mozambique and Ethiopia 14

CHAPTER II. STATE OF RESEARCH 17

On political posters 17

The poster as an artistic medium 22

Posters as illustrated history 24

A technical perspective 26

On caricatures as printed imagery's highest form 26

World War I 26

The October Revolution 28

The inter-war period 32

The Spanish Civil War 32

Posters in Nazi Germany 33

Polish poster art 34

Third World posters 36

Cuban posters 36 Chinese posters 38 African posters 38

Paris 1968 40

Posters seen as a form of mass-produced images 40

The language of images 41

CHAPTER III. THEORY, SOURCES, AND METHODS 43

'New' pictures in 'new' countries. Theoretical problems and practical answers 43

The problem of African socialism and socialist iconography 44

Aim and scope 45

Choice of research area and source material 46

The winner's propaganda 49

Mozambique 49

Ethiopia 50

Methods of analysis and presentation of results 51

CHAPTER IV. DRAWINGS AND OTHER MONOCHROME ILLUSTRATIONS 54

Mozambique 54

Early FRELIMO drawings 54

Agostinho Milhafre 60 Xiconhoca 61 Changes and developments in style 63

Ethiopia 66

An image of revolution and warrior culture 67 A blown-up action cartoon sequence 69 Abonesh Kabebe's REWA drawings 70

Drawings and monochrome illustrations: The first step. Developments in printing technique, content and style 72

CHAPTER V. PHOTOGRAPHIC IMAGES IN POSTERS 73

Mozambique c. 1969—c. 1980 73

Later developments 80

Photographic motifs in Ethiopian posters 85

CHAPTER VI. TYPOGRAPHICAL POSTERS 92

Mozambique 92

Ethiopia 94

Are typographical posters made because of lack of time? 96

CHAPTER VII. SYMBOLS AND EMBLEMATIC COMPOSITIONS IN POSTERS 99

Mozambique 99

Symbols and emblems in the Freire School 99

Posters for independence day 103

Idealized realism—emblematic compositions 106 Samora Machel depicted as an individual, a symbol and in an emblematic composition 107

Ethiopia 108

Symbol compositions from the Addis Ababa School of Fine Arts 108 Symbol compositions from the Party Headquarters 112 Some posters made for Ethiopian Peace, Solidarity and Friendship Committee, EPSFC 112 Symbols in landscapes and other artistic and traditional scenes 114 Dawit Menghistu 116 Late posters from the Ministry of Information and National Guidance 117 Old symbols in new environments—additional notes on symbols and their use and changes 119

CHAPTER VIII. THE NATURE AND THE ROLE OF POLITICAL POSTERS. CONCLUDING REMARKS 134

Political posters as symbols 134

Political posters as an art form 134

Political posters related to other propaganda pictures 136

Political posters' relationship to monumental art 138

Mozambique 138 Ethiopia 139 North Korean influence 141 Posters beyond revolution 143

NOTES 145

REFERENCES 158

Sources 158

Bibliography 159

ILLUSTRATIONS 166

ABBREVIATIONS 172

INDEX 174