

An exhibition of archaeological finds of the People's Republic of China held at the Royal Academy, London
by permission of the President and Council from 29 September 1973
to 23 January 1974

Sponsored by The Times and Sunday Times in association with the Royal Academy and the Great Britain/China Committee

The Genius of China

Contents

Committees	page 6
Foreword by Lord Trevelyan	7
The exhibition	8
Introduction – The scope of the exhibition	10
Early archaeology in China	12
Chronology	13
Historical summary	15
China in the Asian context	21
References to publication of the exhibits	22
Select bibliography	23
Colour plates	24

The exhibits

1 The palaeolithic and neolithic periods	42
2 The Shang dynasty	60
3 The Western Chou dynasty and the period of the Spring and Autumn Annals	76
4 The period of the Warring States	92
5 The Ch'in and Western Han dynasties	98
6 The Kingdom of Tien	112
7 The Eastern Han dynasty	116
8 The period of the Six dynasties	122
9 Textiles of the Han period to the T'ang period and manuscripts and food from the T'ang period	128
10 The Sui and T'ang dynasties	134
11 The period of the Five dynasties and the Sung dynasty	148
12 The Liao and Yüan dynasties	154